

GLOBECOMaine™ FACTS

Company summary: GLOBECOMaine™ LLC. Is a Maine-based company producing sustainable, high-performing products that promote healthier living, environmental responsibility and consumer value.

Science and innovation are at the core of product development; company staff has background in materials engineering and design and they partner with The University of Maine Fiber Bio-products Research Institute and University of New England for healthcare research.

Launching full-time operations in January of 2015, the company is committed to long-term environmental and economic sustainability by using renewable resources, local labor and delivering excellent products and value to the consumer.

GLOBECOMaine's base, cut, sew and packaging operations are located in Dover Foxcroft Maine and begin training and operations in July of 2015. They will initially employ 3, with growth to 5 employees.

Began operations: January 2015.

Manufacturing: Operations in Dover Foxcroft Maine. (July 2015)

Sales Offices: Scarborough Maine.

Products: DURAFRESH™ wood fiber multi use cloth (shipping July 2015).

DURAFRESH™ wood fiber disinfectant cloth (shipping summer 2016)

Media contact Mark Snyder

207-251-5565